(Las Vegas 1995 ; Westwood One radio broadcast; "It's the same as the Cold Turkey '95 boot, except it has the radio host doing intros before some of the songs. The sound is a little better, too. This is the slickest packaging for a CD Bootleg yet. It has an all clear CD case with three shots of the band I've never seen before, and one shot of each band member on the inside. The CD is just all black with the title on it...")

-01 “Silver”: [DVD + Bonus CD!] [Studio Entertainment!] [130 min]

(25th Aniv. Homecoming Concert, Rockford, IL. ; The "Silver" of the title refers to the anniversary the band is celebrating, not their hair color. Twenty five years of rocking good fun is what Cheap Trick has given their fans and it is the reason for this homecoming extravaganza. The rockers return to their home of Rockford, Illinois to perform a 25th anniversary show. Robin Zander, Rick Nielsen, Bun E. Carlos, and Tom Peterson are all there to put the rock in Rockford. Helping them out is an extremely varied guest lineup including Slash, Billy Corrigan, the Rockford Symphony Orchestra, and the Harlem High School Choir. Some of the favorite songs include "She's Tight," "Surrender," "The Flame," and "Dream Police.")

-02 “Music for Hangovers”: [1998] [StudioRhino Records!]

(The great rock band Cheap Trick are one of the most influential bands ever to hail from the Chicago area. At the height of success in the 1970's, the Rockford, Illinois natives helped to define American "power pop" with hits like "Surrender." On MUSIC FOR HANGOVERS, the band are filmed performing a series of sold out concerts at Chicago's Metro venue. Rick Nielsen and the boys perform the songs off of their first 3 albums!)

Unused, Demos, etc.:

These are the songs that have fallen through the cracks of Cheap Trick's career, and I won't sleep until they are properly compiled onto a new 65+ song box set of rare/unreleased Cheap Trick material. I won't sleep and I suggest you don't either.

Early demos:

- Disco Paradise. (Recorded at Ardent Studios in 1975)
- Arabesque. (Recorded at Ardent Studios in 1975)
- Pain Pain. (Did this become "Love's Got A Hold On Me"??)
- All Wound Up.
- I've Always Got You.

Unused songs recorded for the Cheap Trick debut album 1976:

- You Talk Too Much. (Is it much different from the "Next Position Please" version, which I already like?)
- Surrender (With original lyrics??)

(The other 5 of the 12 unused songs recorded for the album) :

- Lovin' Money. (Appear on the Box Set!)
- I Want You To Want Me. (Appear on the Box Set!)
- I Dig Go Go Girls. (Appear on the first album remaster!)
- Lookout. (Appear on the first album remaster!)
- You're All Talk. (Appear on the first album remaster!)

Studio versions of early live songs:

- No Time Like Now.
- Burning In My Heart.
- Downed. (Early version, before Tom Werman added the pretty, flanged intro and an extra chorus to make the song more palatable and less rockin')
- Can't Hold On. (Released live on "Found All The Parts" / "Live at Budakon: The Complete Concert")
- Oh Claire. (The song that we hear the snippet of at the end of the "Heaven Tonight" lp)

Other outtakes... :

- It Must Be Love. (Recorded for "Dream Police", now lost. Covered by Rick Derringer in the early 80's)
- Need A Little Girl (Just Like You). (Written by Rick Nielsen, recorded by Rick Derringer on his "Guitars and Women" album. Not sure if a Cheap Trick studio version of this track exists.)
- Voices. (With Tom Petersson vocal)
- Next Position Please. (1979 demo for the "Dream Police" album)
- Machines Make Money. (A Tom Petersson composition left off "All Shook Up", performed by Tom solo and by Sick Man Of Europe)
- Send Love Thru. (A Nielsen, Zander/ Blondie collaboration from the Rock n' Rule soundtrack sessions)

(Different version than the box set) (recorded in 1980 along with the two studio Found All The Parts songs and I Need Love from the box set. Why do I think this would have made a nice album?):

- I was A Fool.
- Ain't Got You.
- Oh Boy.
- You Talk Too Much.
- Loser.
- Fan Club.

- You Say Jump. (As recorded for "One On One", before it was "tarded up.")
- I Can't Take It. (As recorded for "One On One")
- I'm Moving On. (On of the two songs Bun and Rick played on for the John Lennon/Yoko Ono "Double Fantasy" lp.)
- (Don't) Hit Me With Love. (Removed from "Next Position Please" by the evil record company)
- Rock All Night. (Alternate version, a demo from "Standing On The Edge")
- Don't Ever Let Me Go. (Unreleased demo from "Standing On The Edge")
- Lesson in Love. (Unreleased demo from "Standing On The Edge")
- X-Rated. (Unreleased demo from "Standing On The Edge")
- Temptation. (Unreleased demo from "The Doctor")
- Dance to the Drummer. (Unreleased demo from "The Doctor")
- Loser. (Rumored to be an outtake from the "Lap Of Luxury" sessions. I just got a copy of this song-- go to my Sound Files page to hear a sample of it! This song is also called "You're A Loser" on some bootlegs. From a new Sony/Legacy promo sampler called "Legacy Rock Experience," and listed as a "Previously Unreleased Bonus Track! This song has never appeared on any release-- ever!" If anyone can carbon date this, it would help. Sounds like a late 80's or 90's recording. Not a real inspired performance, but good to have. This sample is from the chorus. 566KB WAV file.)
- Yardbirds medley. (Mentioned by Todd Rundgren as a Bun-production done during the "Next Position Please" sessions)
- Bite It. (A recent "dirty" Rick Nielsen song, played at the 1995 Trickfest)
- I Can Hear You Knocking. (Unreleased demo from "Woke Up With A Monster")
- Downed. [Long version!] (Demo made in 1997, not with Steve Albini, though...)
- Whatcha Gonna Do About It? (Small Faces song recorded in 1998)

Release on a Cheap Trick CD of previously released Cheap Trick songs, from 7" singles, ep's, soundtracks and commercials:

- Such A Good Girl & Take Me, I'm Yours (from the Found All The Parts 10" ep)
- Reach Out. (From the "Heavy Metal" soundtrack)
- I Must Be Dreamin'. (From the "Heavy Metal" soundtrack)
- Up The Creek. (Two versions, from the "Up The Creek" soundtrack)
- Mighty Wings. (From the "Top Gun" soundtrack)
- Spring Break. (From the "Spring Break" soundtrack 7")
- Get Ready. (From the "Spring Break" soundtrack 7")
- Money (That's What I Want). (From the "Caddyshack II" soundtrack)
- I Will Survive. (From the "Gladiator" soundtrack)
- Wild Thing. (From the "Encino Man" soundtrack)
- Big Bang. (From the Japanese version of the "Busted" CD)
- Sabre Dance. (From the Japanese version of the "Woke Up With A Monster" CD)
- Pepsi Commercial. (A song recorded and used in a 1995 Pepsi commercial. 4 versions were recorded. A sound clip from one is here on my sound files page... A 1994 Pepsi ad done by Cheap Trick. If this doesn't make you give up on soda pop, nothing will.)
- Bad Little Girl. (Cheap Trick collaborated with Scotty Moore (ex of Elvis Presley's band) on this track in 1997. It is a Robin Zander composition and appears on the Scotty Moore album, "All The King's Men".)
- Miss Tomorrow. (Robn Zander's finest work from his short-lived solo career. This song is only available on the extremely rare German edition of the "Show Me Heaven" CD single. Good luck finding it!

Cheap Trick Cover Songs:

This is a list of songs Cheap Trick has covered, in the studio, live and released, and live and unreleased.

Released studio cover songs:

- Speak Now (Or Forever Hold Your Peace). On "Cheap Trick", originally by Terry Reid (described by Ira Robbins as an "English Rocker")
- California Man. On "Heaven Tonight", originally by The Move.
- Day Tripper. On "Found All The Parts", originally by The Beatles. While referred to as "live" on the record, this ain't no more "live" than my great-grand pappy.
- Dancing The Night Away. On "Next Position Please", originally by The Motors.
- Don't Be Cruel. On "Lap Of Luxury", originally by Elvis Presley.
- Wild Thing. On the "Encino Man" soundtrack, originally by The Troggs.
- Rock n' Roll Tonight. On "Busted", originally by The Move
- Magical Mystery Tour. On "Greatest Hits", originally by The Beatles.
- Cold Turkey. On the "Working Class Hero- A Tribute To John Lennon" CD, originally by John Lennon.
- My Gang. On "Woke Up With A Monster", based on a Gary Glitter song and partially credited to him.

- Sabre Dance. On the Japanese version of the "Woke Up With A Monster" CD, a traditional Russian folk song.
- Brontosaurus. On the Baby Talk 7", originally by The Move.

Released live cover songs:

- Ain't That A Shame. On "Live at Budakon", originally by Fats Domino.
- Speak Now (Or Forever Hold Your Peace). On "Budakon II", originally by Terry Reid.
- California Man. On "Budakon II", originally by The Move.
- Down On The Bay. On "Sex, America, Cheap Trick", originally by The Move.
- Mrs. Henry. On "Sex, America, Cheap Trick", originally by Bob Dylan.
- Waitin' For The Man/ Heroin. On "Sex, America, Cheap Trick", both songs originally by The Velvet Underground.

Unreleased cover songs (live & studio):

- Who Do You Love. Originally by Bo "E. McDaniels" Diddley. Performed at at least one early show.
- Mercy Mercy. (An early live song)
- Auld Lang Syne. Traditional, performed exclusively on New Year's Eve.
- Not Fade Away. Originally by Buddy Holly, performed live in 1975
- Walkin' The Dog. (An early live song)
- Yardbirds medley. From the "Next Position Please" sessions. I read about this in an interview with Todd Rundgren. He said Bun was working on producing a Yardbirds during the sessions. Both "Beck's Blues" and "Ain't Got You" have been performed live by Cheap Trick, and "Ain't Got You" exists as a 1980 demo.
- All Shook Up. Originally by Elvis Presley. Performed on the "All Shook Up" tour. Also performed on at a 1994 Elvis tribute concert on tv, with bagpipes.
- Highway To Hell. Originally by AC/DC. Performed live.
- Rainy Day Women #12 & 35. Originally by Bob Dylan. Performed live on the 1985 tour supporting The Doctor. According to eyewitnesses, they would do something like this... "between songs, kind of dorking around/jamming, then Rick goes up to the mike and sings "well they stone you when you [acts like he's smoking a joint], they stone you when you [acts like he's pounding some booze], they stone you when you [snorts coke], and they stone you when you [inserts index finger of one hand into "O" formed by other hand]...and the audience sang along to "everybody must get stoned."
- Shakin' All Over. Originally by The Pirates. Performed on the 1990 tour.
- My Generation. Originally by The Who. Performed on the 1990 tour.
- What'cha Gonna Do About It. Originally by The Small Faces. Performed on the 1997 for a few dates as a tribute to the recently deceased Ronnie Lane of the Small Faces.
- Train Kept A'Rollin'. Performed live in Minneapolis with special guests, Aerosmith, 1998.
