Stay Away (3:26)

NOTES: * Tracks 1-11 recorded in Europe 1989. Good guitar but bad vocals. Tracks 12-18 recorded in the USA 1992. Tracks 13-16 sound very suspicious, the mixing and playing are too good, most likely it is a CD of "Hormoaning" with crowd sounds dubbed in.

Videos & TV Appearances:

- "Radio Shack Music Videos"; (1988)

- If you must
- Paper Cuts

Notes: The day after the band recorded a demo and played in Tacoma (1988.01.23), they went to the local Radio Shack in Aberdeen to make some videos. The Nirvana Live Guide writes: "Actually early music videos. The band plays over the demo made the day before. Footage of the show from the night before in Tacoma can be seen on some of the TVs near the band. Dale Crover has said that only a few songs were recorded. Clips were shown on the TV show American Journal. More songs may have been recorded." Clips of "If You Must" and "Paper Cuts" are all that have surfaced so far.

 - "Evergreen State College music videos"; (1990)

The videos were never released and are only available through trading.

Notes: The band shot videos for "School," "Lithium," "Big Cheese," and "Floyd The Barber" at Evergreen State College in Olympia, Washington with the help of some students. Two versions of "School" and "Lithium" exist.

The band made it visually obvious that they were not playing their instruments."

Notes: There really isn't a title for this appearance, but when videos of some of the songs are shown, look for "Live From The MTV Studios" in the on-screen credits at the beginning and end of each video.

* The semi-complete session surfaced in early 1998. (It's listed as semi-complete because there are a few cuts. It's not one continuous video of the session.)
  MTV aired some of the songs in the past, most notably on the tribute to Kurt Cobain. I'm not positive, but the videos may have also been put into rotation.

 - "ABC's In Concert"; (Feb ??? 1992) [new band showcase]

Audio: See The Bootography and their section that lists performances by date.

Video: Find a trader that has the original broadcast with intro. On subsequent airings, MTV edited the intro out of the show.

- Lithium

Notes: The song starts with a brief "Rape Me" intro to scare MTV executives. Towards the end, Novoselic's bass cuts out so he tosses it into the air only to have it hit him in the head on the way down. Bravo! To finish things off, Grohl taunts Axl Rose. One way to get a copy of this is to tape MTV the next time they decide to air a special on Nirvana or pat themselves on the back/waste time due to a lack of programming with a retrospective look at past awards shows. (The last time such a special ran, MTV played an interview with Novoselic over the end of the performance.) MTV has a tendency to put performances from their various shows into rotation at later dates. That probably happened with this song, too, but I'm not sure.

 - "MTV Music Video Awards 1993";

- Lithium (Live!)

 - "Saturday Night Live"; (25.09.1993) Television Performance, New York City, New York NBC

- Heart-Shaped Box
- Rape Me

Audio is available on bootlegs such as Saturday Night Live, and the official compilation SNL: The Musical Performances, Volume 2 which has "Rape Me." Video has never been released, but is widely available in trading circles. Comedy Central still airs reruns of this episode, so keep an eye out if you've never seen this performance. And MTV2 has shown "Rape Me" as a music video.

Notes: This was Nirvana's second SNL appearance (the first was in 1992) and the host was Charles Barkley. The Nirvana Live Guide writes: "After the band rehearses the songs, they do a hilarious trailer shoot with Charles Barkley. An SNL staff member has confirmed that, while the band may have also rehearsed the day of the show, the video taped rehearsals always take place on Thursday." Video of the Thursday rehearsal (1993.09.23), including the promo spots with Barkley, has also been bootlegged and features "Heart-Shaped Box," "Rape Me" (intro), "Heart-Shaped Box" and "Rape Me."

 - -----; (1993) DGC Beth McCarthy

- About a Girl.
- All Apologies.
- The Man Who Sold the World.

Notes: Starting in late 1993 MTV aired individual songs ("About A Girl," "All Apologies," and "The Man Who Sold The World") from the Unplugged show. Coincidentally, or not, DGC also released promo CDs for all three songs.

 - "MTV Live and Loud"; (MTV Presents Nirvana In Concert) 1993.12.13 Television Performance, Seattle, Washington MTV
 38 min. (televised), 90 min. (complete)

Audio: Several commercial bootleg CDs are sourced from the televised video.

Video: The complete show is available through trading. It is "private" shot and the quality is far below the televised version, which is more commonly traded due to its high quality.

- Televised :
- Radio Friendly Unit Shifter
 - Drain You
 - Breed
 - Serve The Servants
 - Rape Me

- Heart-Shaped Box
- Pennyroyal Tea
- Scentless Apprentice
- Lithium
- Demolition
- Complete (private shot)

Notes: This show was originally recorded by MTV for their 1993 New Year's Eve special, MTV Live and Loud, which featured Nirvana, The Breeders, and Cypress Hill. The hosts were Anthony Kiedis and Flea of Red Hot Chili Peppers. Less than half of Nirvana's full performance from two and a half weeks earlier was aired. After that initial broadcast, MTV made subtle edits and retitled the show as MTV Presents Nirvana In Concert. The most noticeable difference is the ten-second edit that cuts out the scene with Cobain knocking an angel's (stage prop) head off with his guitar during the show-ending demolition sequence. And less commercials were shown on subsequent broadcasts, so the transitions between songs appears slightly different. Scott Litt mixed the audio.

- "Unplugged": 1993.11.18 Television Performance, New York City, New York MTV Beth McCarthy

- Oh, me
- Lake Of Fire

- Where Did You Sleep Last Night

Notes: This session was recorded at Sony Studios for MTV's Unplugged series and first aired on 1993.12.16. The audio was later released on the album MTV Unplugged In New York, which included two songs that didn't originally air: "Something In The Way" and "Oh, Me." Besides those two songs being omitted, MTV also changed the order of the songs for the televised version. DGC may have asked MTV to run a few songs ("About A Girl," "All Apologies" and "The Man Who Sold The World") in their video rotation. If not, MTV played them on their own. DGC did issue promotional CDs for all three songs, though. Novoselic is credited as Chris rather than Krist, and Grohl's name is misspelled during the closing credits.

- "Tunnel": 1994.02.23 Television Performance, Rome, Italy RAI 10 min.

Audio: Outcesticide III bootleg CD.

- Rape Me
 - Pennyroyal Tea
 - Drain You

Notes: The Nirvana Live Guide writes: "During 'Pennyroyal Tea,' Kurt's guitar begins to cut out, and during the bridge in 'Drain You' it goes out completely, at which point Kurt proceeds to toss his guitar and just scream into the microphone. Just before 'Drain You,' the announcer says (in French), 'Do you want another one? Yeah! Oh, well yes, I think they are here to do a little third one: NIRVANA!!!' It is rumored that the show ends at 1:30 or something, and Nirvana made the show go to 1:35, the first time in history. There was a 45-minute soundcheck recorded before the show started. It is also rumored that the band came back out at the end and played another three songs, including 'Polly,' 'Sliver,' and one other song."

The complete list of Nirvana songs, v9.2 by Rasmus H. Updated: February 23, 2002

The following list includes pretty much everything Nirvana ever did in their too short career; Studio Songs, Live Performances, Covers, Instrumentals, Demos, Jams, Intros, Rehearsals, Destructions and more. Some of these 'songs' are just names after something the band has said on stage. For example when Dave G. said "We practiced last night" - then it could end up as a song called "Practice" on some CDs. Note: The song is written by its most 'popular' title, hence the name after the / is what the song has been called on bootlegs and on other sources.

The goal of this guide is to list every Nirvana song, and a healthy selection of the mislabeled names a bunch of the songs are given on various bootlegs. That way if you find a song title you don't recognize on a bootleg, you can look for it here, and hopefully find the correct song title. I hope you enjoy this guide!

The following list will, in most cases, not list tiny 2-second jams the band made at a live show - even if they were jamming on a song by a respected artist.

A lot of the songs listed below have not been released officially. In that case, the song might be available on a bootleg, but it is not guaranteed. In fact a lot of these songs have not surfaced on any recordings. Even if they have, it is not possible to list exactly where to find these songs - and that is by no means the purpose of this guide. The main purpose is to simply list Nirvana's songs and not provide specific details about them (including which bootlegs they might appear on).

If you have a song title that you didn't find on this list, make sure to use the "Find" or "Search" feature of your browser/editor, and search for the title first.

If you found a "rare" Nirvana song on Napster, go to the NFC FAQ for more info and to check whether this track is on our list of fakes (it will more than likely be!) Not all the fakes (mostly from Napster) are listed here. Look in the NFC FAQ instead.

Again: The main purpose of this guide is to merely list the titles of all Nirvana's songs, and the false titles they have been given by bootleggers and other traders. It is not a guide for detailed information about the rare songs. The rarities are only described very briefly in this guide, some in more detail. Guides with more details on some of these songs should be available on other Nirvana websites.

A Bureaucratic Desire For Revenge Part 1 (By the band "Earth" with Kurt on Guitar. From an EP called "Extra-Capsular Extraction", released 10/91)

A Bureaucratic Desire For Revenge Part 2 (By the band "Earth" with Kurt on Guitar. From an EP called "Extra-Capsular Extraction", released 10/91)

About a girl / Queer!

Adorn / Lemon Song / White, Lace and Strange / Laminated Effect / White Lace and Strange (From the 04/17/87 KAOS Radio show. Thunder and Roses cover, off an album called "King of the Black Sunrise". Correct title is "White Lace and Strange". Floating on Napster as "Laminated Effect")

Aero Zeppelin / Zero Zeppelin

Ain't it a shame (Kurt on lead vocals with Mark Lanegan, 1989. Has not surfaced. Recorded in Seattle on 8/89)

All along the watchtower (Kurt apparently did a cover of the guitar riff from this song, originally by Bob Dylan. If this is the jam from LTSO, it is a different song)

All apologies / What else could I be / Mary / All Progressive

All you need is love (Beatles cover. Krist sings a blurb of this at the 1/20/90 show in between songs)

Aneurysm / Aneurism / Come on over / Any Rithm / Come on over and do the twist / Ancuryism

Anorexorcist / Run, Rabbit, Run / Raunchola / Suicide Samurai (Performed at the 01/23/88 and 04/17/87 shows. Real title should indeed be "Anorexorcist". "Run, Rabbit, Run" is a different song, as is "Raunchola")

Another One Bites The Dust (Queen Cover, jammed on 10/10/91 in Cleveland, OH)

Anywhere But Here / Determined (With Kurt, Courtney, Kristen Pfaff and Patty. From Rio 1/93 - possibly 1/22/93. The 'wav' file of this song that surfaced was apparently fake)

Asking for it / Live Through This / Ask for it (Hole with Kurt on backing vocals, 1993. Available on the "Outcesticide V" and "Love Buzz" bootlegs)

Asshole / Loser / Why I'm Here (Some people have been claiming that Kurt is singing on this track. He is NOT. It doesn't appear to be an Oleander song either. Original artist unknown.)

At a Crawl (Performed live once. Date unknown. I don't think it has surfaced)

Baba O' Riley (The Who cover. Performed by Nirvana on 12/07/91)

Bad Moon Rising (See Note #1)

Bambi Slaughter / Bambi Kill / Bambie Kill (From a 1988 demo. Also recorded for the FMD. Available on "Outcesticide IV". Apparently Dale Crover noted that 'Bambi Kill' was not the correct title of this song. Real title is unknown.)

Bass Solo / Instrumental Improvisation (Performed at various shows, ie. at 10/30/92)

Blew / Blue / Shame / Coxyx ('Coxyx' is supposedly the title of early versions of Blew)

Buzz cut / The Landlord part 1 / Montage of Heck / What's the meaning? / Escalator to hell (Early intro for Love Buzz, available on the 'Love Buzz' 7" single. Also see "Montage of Heck")
Call it what you want (According to BMI this is a hip-hop song, which briefly samples Nirvana's SLTS. I haven't heard a recording of it)
Castration (Mentioned in the 'Come As You Are Book'. Possibly another name for "On a plain")
Change (Another "rare" song that has been distributed through Napster, and thus a fake. It claims to be Kurt at age 18, but it is not. It's just some idiot posing as Kurt)
Clean up before she comes / Clean it up before she comes / Dusty Town

Token Eastern Song (See "Junkyard" for more info)
Tourette's / tourette's / Downtown / The eagle has landed / Fineprint / New Poopie ("The Eagle Has Landed" is an early version of this song, with alt. lyrics. "New Poopie" is listed at BMI's site, but is actually an early name for "tourette's")

 Note #1:
 Bad Moon Rising: a cover of Creedence Clearwater Revival, performed at early 1987 and 1988 shows. It appears on a setlist in Come As You Are. Performed under the band name "The Sellouts". Unfortunately a recording of Nirvana doing this song is unsurfaced. Though, apparently the song was jammed at 11/9/89 after 'Swap Meet'

Note #2:
 Fountain Soda: before "Muddy Banks" was released, there was rumor that a new Nirvana double-CD set was going to come out under the title "Cookie", and this was to be a song on it. From Brian: "It had been heard that one song from Hole's unplugged show was one of three (I might be off on the number) Kurt wrote/recorded in the last days before his death. The rumor that this song was also done by Nirvana was based solely on conjecture as to which Hole song it was."

Note #3:
 Run, Rabbit, Run: This song was played at 12/21/88 Hoquiam, WA and should indeed be the Smack cover. It was most likely only performed live this one time.

Note #4:
 Raunchola: This song was played at the 01/23/88 Tacoma, WA show. Also called 'Run, Rabbit, Run' by bootleggers. Run, Rabbit, Run - a Smack Cover - was really performed at 12/21/88 and is not this song; the song that was performed during the end of 01/23/88 is most likely not called "Raunchola" either. The real title is unknown. The song is followed by a cover of the Led Zepplin classic "Moby Dick", finishing off the show. This mysterious track was most likely only performed at this show. This Tacoma show recently surfaced on video. Real date could be 12/14/87.

Note #5:
 I Wanna Be Your Dog: Nirvana covered this song by the Stooges. Tyler and Eric noted that 'Confusion is sex' has nothing to do with "I wanna be your dog", however this Sonic Youth CD does contain a cover of that Stooges song in the end of 'Freezer Burn'.

Note #6:
 In His Hands/Verse Chorus Verse: After months of debates and arguments, it should have been established that this song - performed at the 4/17/91, 11/25/90 and 8/17/90 shows - is in fact called "Verse Chorus Verse". This title is printed on an authentic setlist for 4/17/91 and the title was more or less confirmed by Krist N. to be the one of this song. This song is usually mislabeled as "In his Hands" or "In his Room" on commercial bootlegs.

Note #7:
 Sappy: This song is available on the "No Alternative" compilation and was recorded a couple of times in the studio. It was also performed live many times. Some believe it changed name to "Verse Chorus Verse" at some point, but this is unlikely considering that the song - mentioned above - already uses this title. The song has been given a host of different names as you can see in the list above. However, Krist Novoselic confirmed that "Sappy" was the correct name of the song from the "No Alternative" CD.

 Nirvana have also made demo versions, live versions, acoustic versions, mixed versions, jams (etc.) of some of the songs. Even some of the songs above were only played live, and the live version is then listed above. Other bands have also covered some of the songs. Remember that some of the Nirvana members have also played in other groups, obviously songs produced by those groups are not listed here. If you didn't find the song you were looking for on this list, please e-mail me on the following E-mail address: webmaster@nirvanaclub.com - and I'll add it soon. If you use this document on your own web page, please leave it as it were originally, or e-mail me if you wish to make changes or inquire about something related to the song list.

 Nirvana played some of the songs & jams above, using the following band names:

- Fecal Matter
- Brown Cow / Brown Towel
- Stiff Woodies
- The Sellouts [A Creedence Clearwater Revival cover band]
- Skid Row
- Ted, Ed, Fred
- Bliss
- Throat Oyster
- Pen Cap Chew
- Windowpane

 Contributors to the list: Jeremy, Nick Chester, Jack Endino, Dave Labentowicz, Gnopi@aol.com, Christian Pedersen, Joe Hubbard, DRuMa, Chad Channing, Gayle Rogers, Eric San Juan, Rui Magalhães, Brian and others. Also the 'Come As You Are' book.

The exact date of recording is also up in the air. In the book, Come As You Are, there is a picture of a bio written around summer / fall 1988 that lists "Cracker" / "Seed" / "Sad" as available, so I am leaning towards thinking that they were recorded sometime in 1988.

I have talked to some people who have asked the Dutch dj at this session, and there has been no mention of any odd songs played.

March 1994 - Laundry Room sessions:
?* On The Mountain (AKA You Got No Right)
?* Man Who Sold The World
?* Dough, Ray and Me (AKA Me and My IV)
?* Clean-up Before She Comes
?* Opinion {doubtful}
?* Talk to Me {doubtful}

Note: Rumor has it that a total of 9 songs were done. On the Mountain was actually played live on Oct 23rd 1993. Its slightly different than the song Hole did on Unplugged. Supposedly, this might be released (it might have been recorded during a March 1994 studio session). Dough, Ray & Me was also probably recorded then, too - but I have no real idea. The song Clean-up Before She Comes has been released on a bootleg called Dressed For Success. I think that it was a 4-track recording from 1988. This song could have been re-recorded during March 1994. Maybe Clean-Up was re-recorded. I do remember reading that Kurt had been quite depressed after In Utero because he was all written out (no new songs). Maybe that was a factor in his suicide - I don't know. If so, then it makes sense that some old, unreleased songs were re-recorded for the March 1994 sessions. There was a plan to release an ep with some songs from that session with some of the Unplugged songs when

Nirvana went on tour with Lollapalooza. That ep, was, of course scrapped. According to CL on the HSB Mailing list: 'dough ray me is the last song Kurt wrote, mostly in the basement w/ Pat S and Eric- Also "got no right" I found a buncha lyrics on a napkin on the TV- also dr and me was called "Me and My IV" on the napkin.'

Demos for Michael Stipe:

Note: Michael Stipe and Kurt were never able to record together. Michael Stipe did mention that Kurt had put together some demos for Michael.

Note: Not all these songs were played in their entirety. Sometimes, they are just a drum and bass jam.

Melvana: Guitar, Vocals: Buzz Osbourne / Bass: Chris Novoselic / Drums: David Grohl

Notes: Melvana is made of members of Nirvana and the Melvins. These are two live recordings from a small tour from back in 1992. These songs were recorded on 1-15-92 at the Crocodile Cafe, Seattle. Both songs are covers of Flipper songs. Sacrifice is also the second song on the Lysol EP.

Discuss Amongst Yrselves:

- 1) No one has any information, that I can gather, on when "Big Long Now" was recorded. Its a bit of a mystery.
- 2) Is the song called 'The Landlord' on the Fecal Matter faked-bootleg actually 'Montage of Heck'?
- 3) Is 'New Poopy' that was supposedly played during the MTV movie awards during Sept. 1992 actually an early version of tourrettes?
- 4) Anyone have any information that Crisco isn't simply a faked name? Is the song played at Glasgow Scotland on 11/28/91 really Rock Whore?
